My dream was about getting an ice pop. Mmm, delicious! I got two ice pops. When recess was over, my class had to do math. Then we played a game. It was called Go Fish! I had a partner and her name was Natasha. She is a great partner. Then it was time to go home. I did my homework, read two books, and went to sleep.

He dribbled it and passed the ball to me and I made a slam dunk. Our team had 35 points and the other team had 30 points. My other teammate, Cameron, shot a 3 pointer shot.

My dream was about when I saw Hannah Montana and we were having a great time. We were playing with so many games and having an ice cream party. Hannah and I called our friends so they could play and eat ice cream with us. When they came, we had a blast! We ate every single drop of ice cream. I had strawberry ice cream. It was really good! Hannah had chocolate ice cream. She said it was the best ice cream in the world! When our friends left, it was really late. Hannah and I went to my house and then we went to sleep. When we woke up, we ate breakfast together. Hannah had a bagel with butter. I had a bagel without anything on it.

My dream was about me. When I woke up, I felt different. Then I noticed I was a vampire. My skin was really white in the rain.

Every day I wore dark colors.

I could climb to the top of trees. I could lift heavy things.

I could run as fast as lightning.

I really enjoyed being a vampire.

But one morning, I was not a vampire. I was so sad. Then I was a vampire again!

"Now I must be fed," I ordered them.

"Yes, my queen."

They gave me pineapple upside down cake. It was the best dream ever!

One morning, it was my birthday. A servant said to me, "HAPPY BIRTHDAY!"

I rushed downstairs. My mom said, "Hi Jenny. Did you have a good sleep?"

I said, "Where are we going for my birthday?"

My mom said, "We are going to Jennyland."

"I have my own land?"

"Yes, you do have a land."

"What time is my birthday party?"

"At 1:00 pm," said my mom.

It was a great birthday party.

I had a dream that I was on a cliff. Someone came and pushed me off the cliff and I fell in the water. I started to drown. A shark was thrashing. He tried to bite me with his sharp teeth. He almost ate me alive, but I was swimming so fast. I crashed into a rock. He almost caught me, but he hit a tall rock. I got to land and he came on land with me. I shot him with an arrow and he was dead.

My dream was about a little girl who was eating her ice cream. A little boy wanted her ice cream. She said, "No!" He was a bully. He got mad and the girl was crying because the bully wanted to beat her up. The boy got in trouble and he was never seen again.

Do you like bullies? I do not like bullies. My mom said not to listen to bullies. Once, when it was snowing, a bully told me to climb on a branch. I told him I would not do it, but he said that if I didn't do it he would beat me up. My mom came looking for me because we were leaving. She saw me stuck in the tree.

My dream is about a star falling from the sky and landing in the woods. I snuck out of the house and went to the woods where the falling star landed. I saw the star. My eyes were glowing brighter and the star was blinking. I made a wish that the star was back in the sky. I went back home and fell asleep. In the morning, I told my mom what happened. I said I would go and see the star now. I went to the woods. The star was still there. It was not glowing. I got my friend Alex. She said it would glow at night. She said we should dig the dirt off the star so the star has space to fly back into the sky.

In my dream, my family and I were running away from a giant boulder. My step dad tried to stop the boulder, but it was rolling too fast. I wondered how we would stop the boulder. Wait! Aaaahhhh! There it is! The boulder almost ran us over! Luckily, we hid in a cave on the rocky hill. Then we saw a dollar bill and we put it in a machine. The machine pushed us out of the cave. Oh no! There was another boulder!
